Part Two:

Application Letter

Please provide a one page letter explaining why you would like to be in the Collective Voice program. In this letter you may want to cover some of the following areas:

- ◆ Positive attitude and open-mindedness towards learning
- ◆ Interest in learning of other cultures
- ◆ Ability to work without supervision; independent and responsible
- ◆ Strong interest in developing in all aspects of yourself – mentally, emotionally, physically and spiritually
- ◆ Interest in learning in an integrated, interactive environment
- ◆ Ability to work with others
- ◆ Overall interest in learning

Willingness to Participate:

Collective Voice will require you to travel to the best place to learn throughout the week whether that be at Aden Bowman, the Francis Morrison Library, the riverbank, CFCR radio station or elsewhere. As well, each week students will need to be at CFCR recording a radio documentary to be aired. It is integral to the success of the students and of the course, that students be willing to participate in all Collective Voice activities.

Costs:

There is a cost of $100.00 attached to this program to cover some of the cultural experiences. Acceptance in this program is not based on the ability to pay. If cost is a problem, please contact Shelly Loeffler.
